Beneath each sheet is adhesive area

Traditional Layout:

Note: When designing sheet graphics, pay close attention to adhesive edge on sheet and how your graphics will be used when printed on sheet. (Example: if printing an arrow on sheet, and sheet will be used to point to an area on a form, make sure arrow point is printed on adhesive edge.)

Graphics above this line will be hidden from view in the dispenser with paper insert card. Imprint or laser engraving on plastic top may also cover sheet imprint.

Graphics below this line should not have heavy ink coverage.
